Lesley Regalado has been an independent human resources and career consultant since 1997. Her practice, Career Resource Services, includes recruiting/job placement services and career and academic coaching. Lesley has a Bachelor of Science in Education from Baylor University and a Master of Arts in Women's Studies and Diversity from Texas Woman's University, where she is acknowledged as a member in The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi. Lesley is extremely active with the Baylor University community serving on the Baylor Council of Career Advisors and as a volunteer Recruiter, where she visits high schools and junior colleges speaking on behalf of Baylor. Lesley serves as a mentor at the University of Texas at Dallas and has been a guest speaker at numerous career service centers at technical schools, colleges, and universities across the area. During graduate school, Lesley had the opportunity to intern with the Dallas Concilio of Hispanic Service Organizations where she gained an interest and furthered her skills in the non-profit world. She has completed training courses in fundraising and grant writing and has done event planning for The Concilio. Lesley also works part time as a Program Manager for Orion's Mind, a supplemental educational service provider for Dallas ISD where she manages the relationship between Orion's Mind and Seagoville and Hill Middle Schools. In her spare time, she enjoys traveling, reading, music, and spending time with her friends and family.
